Defendant.	)

This matter is before the court on Plaintiff Diane Minish's failure to respond to this court's November 4, 2013, Order [DE-15].

In that order, the court observed that it was not satisfied that it has personal jurisdiction over Defendant Co-operative Adjustment Bureau, and therefore it was holding Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment [DE-8] and Motion for Attorney's Fees [DE-9] in abeyance pending Plaintiff's filing of supplemental proof of service. The court specifically directed Plaintiff to file supplemental proof of service on or before December 2, 2013.

More than a week has passed since that deadline, and Plaintiff has failed to file anything in response to the court's order. Accordingly, the Motion for Default Judgment [DE-8] and Motion for Attorney's Fees [DE-9] are DENIED. Should Plaintiff wish to proceed in this case, she is DIRECTED to file supplemental proof of service within thirty days of this order. Should Plaintiff fail to file supplemental proof of service within that time period, this action may be dismissed for failure to prosecute.

SO ORDERED. This, the // day of December, 2013.

James C. Fox Senior United States District Judge
